Summary of reasons for decision:

‘e13914a8-99ca-4a5a-b9fe-79148273537b’ depicts a mid-air accident where two small planes crash into each other. The footage is from helmet cameras attached to skydivers on one of the planes. Despite the horrifying nature of the accident, and the likelihood that serious injury resulted, the video does not depict harm to any of the parachutists. The Classification Office considers that the unrestricted availability of the video is unlikely to be injurious to the public good and it is therefore classified as unrestricted. This classification is consistent with the right to freedom of expression as provided by the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990.
